DAFG Jour Fixe with Alsharq

Forget-Me-Not – Lebanon since the War in Syria

On Thursday, 10 November 2016, at 6:30 pm

DAFG Office Friedrichstr. 185, 10117 Berlin

For the 10th DAFG Jour Fixe we warmly invite you to the DAFG Head Office in the heart of Berlin! As a permanent platform the Jour Fixe is open for English-speaking students and young alumni of all disciplines as well as other persons interested in the exchange between Germany and the Arab world. At this meeting we would like to discuss the political, societal and economic effects of the war in Syria on Lebanon. Fresh impressions from Lebanon will be brought into the debate by Christoph Dinkela-ker, Co-Founder of Alsharq. Just before the event he will be leading a study trip through Lebanon, where he lived for several years.

Language: English

Berlin based Alsharq is an independent online platform, lead by young scientists and journalists providing expertise and experience on topics concerning the Middle East. Alsharq furthermore offers a variety of political study trips and seminars as well as analysis and consulting services. With regular discussion forums on current political developments in the Middle East Alsharq seeks to supply a platform for young and alternative perspectives on the topics, aside from established and/or deadlocked opinions.
